MALA Annual Conference & Dementia Summit (Virtual):

Care Partnering: Who is it all about?

on: September 29, 2020

Presenters: Brian LeBlanc and Maureen Rulison

Course Description: In this session, Brian LeBlanc and Maureen Rulison are a couple who are experiencing life with dementia. In a candid discussion, they will share their thoughts on what a care partnership entails. They will describe what person-centered support means to them and steps they have taken to ensure their needs and preferences are known to future care partners.
